

PDPM Master Class Series: PDPM Quality Assurance and Outcomes Tracking

Series Title: PDPM Master Class (12-month series)

Session Title: PDPM Quality Assurance and Outcomes Tracking

Presentation Date: August 2020 Live Webinar

Presented By: (see attached bios)

- Eleisha Wilkes
- Shelly Maffia
- Amie Martin
- Kristen Walden

Course Description:

This session of the PDPM Master Class Series will focus on critical patient outcomes monitoring and recommended measures of quality assurance for PDPM. A review of Key Performance Indicators and strategies for data collection, monitoring and applying outcome measures to drive continual quality assurance will be discussed. Examples of business intelligence reporting and implications for operations will be included.

Learning Objectives

1. Discuss key data elements and outcome measures recommended for monitoring PDPM performance.
2. Develop skills in implementing PDPM outcomes reporting systems in the facility
3. Understand best practices for monitoring and applying PDPM outcomes data to assess performance, measure potential risk and drive quality assurance goals

Course Content

30 mins Review key data elements and outcome measures recommended for monitoring PDPM performance and discuss best practices for implementing effective PDPM outcomes reporting systems in the facility

35 mins Review best practices for monitoring and applying PDPM outcomes data to assess performance, measure potential risk and drive quality assurance goals; Review sample outcomes reporting and case study

10 mins Closing remarks and questions

Target Audience: Administrators, Directors of Nursing, Nursing, QA, MDS, Staff Development, Therapy, Social Services, Board Members, Compliance Officer/Designee, CFO

Instructional Level: Intermediate Contact Hours: 1.25

.....

